

Crash Course in Art Appreciation

With Amy Lohrmann

What makes some art work stand the test of time? Does modern art really have a purpose? Do you want to understand why that artist put that extra line or color there? This course is for you!

This 1 ½ – 2 hr class is designed for a group of 6 or more people ages 12 through adult.

Suitable for family, friends, classroom or office setting.

$15 per person with a 6 person minimum.

Artist Amy Lohrmann has been teaching art to children and adults for over 30 years.

This fun interactive class will help you to understand why you like and dislike certain pieces of art and what others see in it.

We will discuss art through the ages, why it is important and how you can appreciate it more fully. Everything needed will be provided but you are welcome to bring your favorite image with you also!
